The Aztec Hotel & Spa is a haven of traditional comfort. Reclaimed timber beams and local Cotswold stone give the impression that this elegant, welcoming establishment has been here for centuries. Polished wood and rich traditional colours add warmth, while huge rugs stretched in front of open fires create cosy, personal spaces within this hotel.

This is a modern conference centre, purpose built just minutes from the motorway network, and easily accessed from the Midlands or London. A total of 14 versatile meeting rooms can be adapted for your every purpose. In addition, there are 8 syndicate rooms suitable for up to 10 delegates.

Conference Café is an all-day refreshment area, giving conference organisers and delegates the ultimate flexibility in their timings - whenever you want to break, there's always a great selection of teas, coffees, juices, fruit and snacks on hand.

The Cabot and Brunel offer ideal training facilities and each have an adjacent self-contained break out area. The extensive ground floor Cotswold suite has vehicle access for loading and unloading, and can be divided with a soundproof partition. All main conference rooms have natural daylight and air cooling.

Individual delegates can unwind in the hotel's leisure facilities, which include a 12 metre swimming pool, whirlpool, steam room, sauna or solarium and tone up in the gym or on the squash courts.

Besides the hotel's excellent Quarterjacks restaurant, there is a private dining room, plus the opportunity to eat Al Fresco on the patio overlooking the lake during the Summer months. The Black Sheep public house offers award winning ale and home cooked food.

Special themed evenings can be arranged, including BBQ, American, Italian or Chinese, and your own suggestions are welcome. We'll gladly tailor your evening's entertainment - and indeed your whole booking - to your particular needs.
